

Obituary

Born: Monday, August 26, 1985

Died: Tuesday, January 15, 2019

Ashley Camp 33, of Easthampton passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on Tuesday January 15, 2019. She was born in Northampton on August 26, 1985 to her loving parents, Deborah James of Springfield, MA and Keith Camp of Westport, MA. Ashley's greatest gift in life was the birth of her twin sons, Nicholas and Gabriel now 14, whom she loved with all her heart. She was loved by many, especially her nieces and nephews, who all knew her as "Titi". Ashley loved to be out on the river, boating with her family and friends. She also loved to do the make-up and hair on anyone who would let her. Like most of the women in her family, Ashley loved the color purple. Ashley attended Calvary Baptist Christian School as well as Smith Vocational and Agricultural High School. Now in the arms of our Lord, Ashley leaves behind her twin sons Nicholas and Gabriel Gougeon. She also leaves behind her mother Deborah James of Springfield, her father Keith Camp of Westport, her Nana and Grandpa, Nancy and Paul Pepin of Springfield, her three sisters, Alison Camp, Jocelyn Camp and Angela Teles, her three brothers, Kyle Camp, Christopher Blanchard and Nicholas Blanchard and many nieces and nephews, cousins, Aunts and Uncles.
